The company takes four-door crew cabs and adds two more doors. Presto chango, you've got a nine-passenger pickup. By adding fifth and sixth doors to SUVs, it transforms them into 11-passenger vehicles. The company claims that as only several hundred pounds are added to the chassis, tow ratings decrease only slightly.

Feeling confined in your new jumbo-cab hauler? Here's an option: The Stretch Truck Co. (303/478-6193; stretchtruck.com) elongates trucks to limousine-type lengths, while retaining their functionality.
